

Profile

Louis-Pierre Emond

Deputy Director, Bilateral Commercial Relations – North Africa and the Middle East, Foreign Affairs and International Trade Canada

Louis-Pierre Emond joined the Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade in 1999. He was desk officer responsible for France for a year before starting intensive Japanese language lessons for two years. In 2002, he was posted to the Canadian Embassy in Tokyo, Japan, as First Secretary in the High-tech section. In 2005, he was named Consul of Canada and Senior Trade Commissioner in Nagoya, Japan.

Upon his return to Ottawa in 2007 he joined the division responsible for bilateral commercial relations with North Africa and the Middle East, as Deputy Director.

Mr. Emond obtained a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration (marketing and international management) in 1997 from Laval University and a Master's degree in Business Administration (MBA, International management) in 1999 from Laval University.