Notice

Manulife Asset Management ('MAM') has announced that Chris Chapman has been promoted to portfolio manager on the Global Multi Sector Fixed Income team, effective April 12, 2017.

Mr. Chapman has been a key contributor on the Global Multi Sector Fixed Income team, most recently serving as a senior investment analyst based in London.

Products Affected

Manulife Strategic Income Fund (GRS, MMF, IIC, Seg, MPW)
Manulife Strategic Investment Grade Global Bond Fund (Seg)

Impact

People

MAM's Global Multi Sector Fixed Income team is led by Dan Janis, senior managing director and senior portfolio manager. Tom Goggins, senior managing director and senior portfolio manager, and Kisoo Park, managing director and portfolio manager, are also key senior members of the team.

Chris Chapman is responsible for global sovereign debt and currency research, portfolio construction and risk management for the global multi-sector fixed income strategies managed by the team. He began his career at State Street Bank in 1999. Chris joined Manulife in 2005, and prior to his current team, had most recently worked on the Quantitative Research Team as an investment risk analyst.

Closing Remarks

Mr. Chapman's appointment to portfolio manager recognizes his contributions to the team and is in line with the succession planning efforts that the Global Multi Sector Fixed Income team has previously communicated to IMS. The portfolio management team has discussed the growing responsibilities that Mr. Chapman has taken on over time and there are no concerns with his promotion.
