A revocable beneficiary can be changed at anytime.

An irrevocable beneficiary can only be changed with written consent from that beneficiary. You will also need your beneficiary's consent to withdraw or transfer money from your account. A parent or guardian cannot provide consent on behalf of a minor who has been named as irrevocable beneficiary.

If you want to name more than three beneficiaries, attach a separate page with the names and the percentage of proceeds for each beneficiary.

If you have locked-in money in your RPP and you have a spouse on the date of your death, the law may require any death benefit be paid to your spouse, regardless of other beneficiaries you've named.

If you die while your beneficiary is still a minor, the trustee you name on this form will act on the child's behalf.

A copy, fax, scan or image of the beneficiary designation in this form is as valid as the original.

Name your beneficiary (or beneficiaries)

If you do not name a beneficiary and you do not have a spouse at the date of your death, proceeds will be paid to your estate.

☐ Check here if you have attached a separate page listing your beneficiaries. Please sign and date.

The above beneficiary designations are considered revocable unless you write "irrevocable" in the chart above.

For Quebec only:

The designation of a spouse as beneficiary is deemed to be irrevocable unless specified here: ☐ Revocable

Any payment to a beneficiary who is a minor will be paid in trust to the trustee named below.

In Quebec, the proceeds will be paid in trust to the minor child's tutor.

Tell us if you want Manulife to rebalance your investments

Check the box if you do not want to use this service. Otherwise leave it blank. Your investments will then be rebalanced twice a year.

Different investments grow (or decrease) at different rates, which over time may cause your investment mix to differ from the allocation you specified. You should consider this service if you decided to build your own portfolio in the previous section.

☐ You do not want your investments in this plan to be automatically rebalanced.

Your plan sponsor (employer) has instructed Manulife to rebalance your investments in the plan twice a year - in June and December - if the percentage of your money invested in any fund is different from your current investment instructions by more than 2.5%. You must have a minimum account balance of $5,000 on this date for rebalancing to occur.

NOTE: The Automatic Asset Rebalancing service will not transfer any money you have invested in Guaranteed Interest Accounts.

Authorize your employer to deduct your contributions

You can change the amount you can contribute, by going online anytime.

You authorize Canadian Red Cross Society to deduct the following amounts from your pay each pay period and submit these contributions to Manulife to invest in this plan.
